OVERVIEW

Michael J. Willemin is a Partner at Wigdor LLP. He is a leading plaintiffs' employment litigation attorney representing clients in numerous high-impact employment matters in federal and state court, as well as in arbitration.

Michael's practice covers counseling and litigation of discrimination cases including sexual harassment, discrimination based on race, gender, pregnancy, disability and age and LGBTQIA+ status, retaliation, defamation, Family and Medical Leave Act, wage and hour, whistleblower and breach of contract cases. Michael's focus also includes civil rights, appellate, and complex class and collective action litigation.

"... his ability to understand and translate client goals and emotions is unparalleled."

—Former client

He has represented individuals in many industries, including financial services, professional services including law, auditing and consulting, sports, tech, entertainment and media, hospitality, medicine, architecture and retail.

Michael is not afraid to aggressively litigate and try cases when the situation calls for it. As a result of his and Wigdor's reputation in this regard, along with Michael's superior negotiating skills, he is regularly able to secure favorable settlements prior to the filing of any lawsuit or other litigation. Michael's trial verdicts, arbitration awards and confidential settlements total over one hundred million dollars.
