OVERVIEW

Molly L. Zhu is an Associate at Wigdor LLP.

Prior to joining Wigdor, Molly practiced as an associate at a New York law firm, working on an array of litigation matters, including representing clients involved in complex commercial disputes, ERISA class actions, as well as governmental investigations. Molly's pro bono docket consisted of representing plaintiffs in a racial gerrymandering/voting rights lawsuit, an indigent client in an 8th Amendment suit, and a class of students in an educational inadequacy/racial discrimination lawsuit.

During law school, Molly served as an intern at the American Civil Liberties Union and the Office of the New York Attorney General, where she provided legal services to indigent clients and wage laborers on a variety of matters spanning from wage and hour disputes, non-competition disputes, pregnancy discrimination, and wrongful termination claims.
