Congratulations to Michael Willemin Named to Fourth Annual "They've Got Next: The 40 Under 40" .

Bloomberg Law announced that Michael Willemin has been recognized as one of 40 leading young lawyers nationwide in the fourth annual "They've Got Next: The 40 Under 40." Michael is among the 40 young lawyers nationwide spotlighted across a wide range of practice areas.

Bloomberg Law's "They've Got Next: The 40 Under 40" initiative invites law firms and corporations across the United States to nominate distinguished legal professionals for this esteemed annual accolade. Nominees are evaluated on their achievements in client service, leadership capabilities, and dedication to pro bono activities.

"Our 2024 honorees represent the best of the future of the legal profession," said Lisa Helem, executive editor, Bloomberg Industry Group. "This elite group of young leaders excels in foreseeing and navigating the complexities their clients face. Through their successes, they elevate, innovate and serve – not only clients but their communities beyond. They also represent a range of practice areas, life experiences and cultures – diverse in all senses of the word."
