

Law 360: NFL Leads Sports & Betting Cases To Watch For Rest Of 2024

July 29, 2024 • News & Press

Significant cases involving major American pro sports organizations have earned extra attention as the second half of 2024 begins, as have cases involving young professional athletes, college recruits and youth sports participants. Still, the NFL remains king with its footprint all over the list of must-follow cases for the rest of the year.

Law360 looks at the top sports and betting cases the legal world will be watching in the second half of 2024 and many are represented by Wigdor LLP.

Those cases are:

- NFL Coaches' Arbitration Collision Course with former Miami Dolphins head coach Brian Flores
- Racist Claims Surround NFL's Media Arm with a suit filed by award-winning journalist Jim Trotter
- James Dolan Accused of Sexual Assault by Kellye Croft

Read the full Law360 article here.