

$3.35 Million Verdict On Behalf Of A Former Employee Of Nassau County Whose Due Process Rights Were Violated

May 4, 2005 • Results

Wigdor LLP successfully represented Georgina Morgenstern, a former employee of Nassau County in her Due Process claim against the County and other individuals. After a two week jury trial in the Eastern District of New York, the jury returned a verdict on Ms. Morgenstern's compensatory and punitive damages in the sum of $1.8 million. After the verdict, the Court awarded $427,000 in back-pay, $1,059,000 in attorneys' fees and $64,500 in costs for a total of approximately $3.35 million.

Long Island Press

"Update: Nassau Must Pay Morgenstern $1.8 M"

August 13, 2009

Read PDF

New York Newsday

"Ex-Nassau worker awarded $1.8M in wrongful-firing suit"

August 8, 2009

Read PDF

Long Island Press

"The Whistleblower"

May 26, 2005

Read PDF