

Wigdor Files Class Action Against Verboten Nightclub Alleging Failure To Pay Wages And Sexual Harassment

March 16, 2016 • News & Press

Wigdor LLP represents 16 former employees of the Brooklyn nightclub, Verboten, in a class action suit against the nightclub and its owners, Jen Schiffer and John Perez. Our clients allege that Verboten failed to pay them earned wages and that many of the nightclub's female employers were subjected to sexual harassment, including lewd comments, sexual advances and physical sexual harassment.
